A pre-memorial day sermon was delivered in the Congregational church on Sunday morning, May 27, by Rev. M. W. Hale. About 30 W. R. C. members, six G. A. R. and six S. of V. sat in a body. As the years go by the ranks of the G. A. R. grow smaller, as one by one answers to the roll call over yonder.
The game of baseball between the Hardwick academy boys and Cabot town team at Cabot May 30 resulted in a score of 11 to 3 in favor of Cabot.
Decoration day was an ideal one of the season, the bright sunshine lending warmth to the verdure of the surrounding forests, hastening the growth of the tiny buds and expanding their leaves, lending cheer to the aged veterans and all others who had gathered to commemorate the day of all days in the year which should be held in reverence for those who sacrificed their lives and in honor to the few remaining G. A. R. men.
At 10:30 a. m. the procession formed at society hall, composed of G. A. R., W. R. C., S. of V., school children and citizens, and proceeding through the covered bridge, which was draped with the national colors, a ceremony prepared for soldiers and sailors was used. A wagon decorated with national colors conveyed the singers. A song, "Rocked in the Cradle of the Deep," by Mrs. J. T. Drew, and "Nearer My God to Thee," by the people, were followed by the color bearers escorting eight girls to the water's edge, where they strewed flowers and evergreens upon the still-flowing Winooksi river to be borne away in honor of the dead soldiers and sailors. The procession then re-formed, marching to the cemetery, and held their usual service. Graves were decorated with flowers and wreaths, also a mound for the unknown dead, the school children being escorted by the color bearers. Rev. F. E. Currier pronounced the benediction. At noon a sumptuous dinner was served in society hall to G. A. R., W. R. C., S. of V. and their families and invited guests, numbering over 100. At 1:30 p. m. the march was again taken to the town hall, where appropriate exercises and songs by the children were rendered. Walbridge orchestra furnished music. A very stirring and enthusiastic address was given by Rev. J. B. Reardon of Barre, closing by singing "America."

Appropriately Enthusiastic.

Altruism.

The back yard of a house in a Massachusetts town is overlooked by the windows of an orphan asylum. In this back yard stood a barrel of apples which were disappearing at a rapid rate.

The woman of the house, a widow and a knowing mother, summoned her eight-year-old son to make inquiry touching the curious disappearance of the fruit.

"Yes, mother, I've eaten the apples," he confessed, "but I really had to do it."

"Had to do it?"

"Yes, mother; the orphans wanted so many cores."—Chicago Herald.

"I can't rest, I can't sleep, and most of all, I hardly dare go out, for when it starts itching, I simply have to scratch, no matter where I am."

"Don't worry a bit—just get a cake of Resinol Soap and a jar of Resinol Ointment. Use them according to directions and I am sure you will get prompt relief, and that your skin will be all right in a few days."
